CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1951, do bequeath the following—
To the Freshman Class we bequeath our ability to get along with teachers.
To the Sophomores we leave the carved-up desks in the session.
And to the Juniors, individually, we leave these material things:

Carol Henkleman	her books to Buster Furtaw so he'll receive all "A's".
Charles Netherton	his muscle building course to Hale Saph.
Bob Archer	his speedy "Lincoln Zepher" to Dick Smith.
Mitzi Fairfield	her knack of getting around the fellows to Delores Hasler and Maxine Rahn.
Donna Kaufman	her left-over Tintair to Marilyn Kaufman.
Pat Clemons	her extra movie tickets to Carolyn Marzolf.
Pat O'Toole	her dancing feet to Bill Henry and Ed. Crampton.
Pat Ogden	her brick red locks to Mary Morningstar.
Chet Kuberski	his athletic ability to Lou Morningstar.
Bob Bantien	his curly hair to Bob Van Wormer.
Jim Teichow	his chair in band to Linda Robertson and Delores Schroeder.
Elmer Wolf	his girl friends to Don Briggs and Walter Phillips.
Fuzzy Thomas	isn't leaving anything; he's keeping all that he's got.
Buddy Cooper	his driver training ability to Sally Boulrier and Helen Henderson.
Jean Kammer	her spelling knowledge to Bill Boulrier.
Dorothy Kammer	her ability to get to class on time to Norma Heitmann and Fran Merrill.
Donna Cadle	her southern drawl to Gail McLean and Lois Vogler.
Smith McLeod	his citizenship papers to Valda Heine.
Bernie Mitchell	his crown to Earl Fortner.
Syd McLouth	his height and reach to Gaylord Creedon.
Rita Hurlburt	her lovely "figger" to Shirley Ames and Barbara Segar.
Betty Vogel	her blue eyes to Janice Schaffer.
Bob Horn	his milk route to Norma Brendle.
Jerry Burch	his step and a half gait to Chuck Hahn.
Phyllis Jolin	her vitamin pills to Dick Wendt.
Irma Endmann	her look of innocence to Martha Mary Palmer and Sylvia Buchler.
Shirley Smith	her numerous duties to Jim Bellore and Harris Ringeisen.
Evelyn Hintzman	her clerical ability to Norine Wissman.
Don Erdman	his football uniform to Delmar Beier.
Phyllis Shaw	her old gum and candy wrappers to Mary Jane O'Mara and Shirley Kornmeier.
Barb Kaufman	her quiet ways to Lois Biskner.
Betty Dodge	her farm chores to Helen Henderson.

GIFTATORY

The mighty Juniors, the Class of "52", wish to express their feelings toward the Seniors with these little gifts. They're really not much but we've always heard that it's the thought behind the gift and not the gift itself.

We give to Bob Archer this recipe book
So in his spare time he can learn to cook.
A vitamin pill to Bob Bantien we give
So he can really start to live.
Because of Chuck Beattie's smoking he's always broke
So we give this pack of cigarettes for him to smoke.
For Jerry Burch our limping boy
We give this little plastic toy.
To Donna Jean Cadle, who comes from the South,
We give this gum to put in her mouth.
To Pat Clemons, whom we all missed this year,
We give this great big "Welcome Back" cheer.
To Buddy Cooper, who loved his science classes,
So he can study longer, we give these glasses.
To Betty Dodge, our quiet gal,
We give this monkey for her pal.
To Irma Erdmann, our country girl,
We give this keep-sake, an imitation pearl.
To Don Erdmann, who helps people a lot,
We give this book on "Believe It or Not."
For Mitzi Fairfield, who has a brown tan,
For the warm weather we give this fan.
Shorthand Carol Henkelman loved to write,
We give this light bulb so she do it all night.
To Evelyn Hintzman, who works at the feed store,
We give this knife in case of war.
To Bob Horn, who loves to cook,
We give this helpful "Homemaker's Book".
To Rita Hurlburt, who is so cute,
We give this big black paper boot.
To Phyllis Jolin, whom we all know as Phyl,
We give this little "Hayfever" pill.
To Dort Kammer, so sweet, so nice,
We give this book, "The Three Blind Mice".
To Jean Kammer, our spelling whiz,
We give this copy of a final quiz.
To Donna Kaufman, who now has black hair,
We present this bow for her to wear.
To Barbara Kaufman, who lives on the Palms Road,
We give this copy of the faithful "Morse Code".
To Chet Kuberski, who's everyone's star,
We give, for energy, this candy bar.
To Smitty McLeod, who's got himself a job,
We give this pipe that's made of corn cob.

GIFTATORY

To Syd McLouth, who fell for Val's charms,
We give this glue so he can stay in her arms.
To Bernie Mitchell, our star and King,
We give this copy of the song, "The Thing"
To Chuck Netherton, who has a lot of zep,
We give this box of Kellogg's Pep.
To Pat Ogden with the brilliant red hair,
We give this four leaf clover, which is just as rare.
A gun we give to Pat O'Toole,
So the whole world she can rule.
To Phyllis Shaw, who is so small,
We give this vitamin for her to grow tall.
To our Queen, Shirley Smith, we give this string,
To wear around her finger in place of a ring.
To Fuzzy Thomas, the wolf of Marine High,
We give this terrible flashy tie.
To Jim Teichow, our hungry guy,
We give this delicious cherry pie.
To Betty Lou Vogel, who loves to cheer,
We give this bottle of—root beer.
For Elmer Wolf, so he can live up to his name,
We give this whistle to bring him fame.

—Janice Schaffer
